

Subrogation & Recovery

Our Subrogation and Recovery team believe that the handling of subrogation claims and insurance defence matters are very different. Our lawyers are solely focused on advancing subrogation claims, and do not simply dabble in this complicated area of law. We specialize in large, complex subrogation matters, and prosecute cases all over Canada, including Quebec. We have worked hard to establish ourselves as reliable and results-driven professionals in the field.

We regularly work with insurers, reinsurers, insurance brokers and agents, insurance syndicates, and independent adjustment companies to pursue claims and provide cost-effective investigations in a timely and efficient manner.

We can offer the specialized and focused attention that subrogation and recovery files warrant. We investigate subrogation and recovery claims with a deep understanding of the relevant legal and forensic issues. Whenever possible, we aim to resolve claims through alternative dispute resolution procedures. However, if litigation is necessary, we aggressively and diligently litigate claims through to trial.
