

WeirFoulds Partner James Kosa recognized in 2024 Lexpert Special Edition: Technology and Health Sciences

June 17, 2024

Congratulations to Partner James Kosa on being recognized in the 2024 Lexpert Special Edition: Technology and Health Sciences. The special edition features Lexpert-ranked lawyers who advise leading tech companies and health sciences businesses, whether on intellectual property or corporate or regulatory law.

James offers his clients a wealth of knowledge and experience from across the spectrum of technology issues, including the protection and exploitation of computer and software technology, IT and IP licensing, privacy, security breaches and dispute resolution. His depth of experience means that he is able to offer his clients clear, practical and well-rounded advice by cutting through the technical jargon. James takes the complexity of technology law and turns it into practical knowledge and advice that his clients can easily understand.

The Technology and Intellectual Property Practice Group at WeirFoulds services a wide range of industries old and new, including retail, transportation, government, education, manufacturing, food, information technology, finance, and professional services. Their experience and expertise in technology law range from traditional categories (IT service agreements, licensing, software development) to new and emerging technologies (Blockchain, Fintech, AI).

The Lexpert Special Edition: Technology and Health Sciences is the product of an extensive peer survey process, and was published digitally on June 17, 2024.
