

WeirFoulds Partner Philip Cho recognized in 2024 Lexpert Special Edition: Insolvency and Restructuring

October 15, 2024

Congratulations to Partner Philip Cho on being recognized in the 2024 Lexpert Special Edition: Insolvency and Restructuring. The special edition features Lexpert-ranked lawyers whose practice focuses on Banking & Financial Institutions, Corporate Commercial Law, and Corporate Commercial Litigation, with significant experience in corporate restructuring and insolvency matters.

Phil has gained a reputation as an effective and practical advisor to his clients. In insolvency and bankruptcy matters, Philip provides advice to debtors, creditors, trustees, monitors and receivers in the context of proceedings, disputes and transactions under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, and related provincial legislation, including Division 1 proposals and debtor-in-possession proceedings. Philip has also provided advice to clients in the context of informal restructuring or insolvency matters, both on the lender-side and on the debtor-side.

The Insolvency & Restructuring Property Practice Group at WeirFoulds acts for a range of stakeholders – including a successful history of advising secured and unsecured creditors, debtor-in-possession (DIP) lenders, debtors, suppliers, boards of directors, purchasers, receivers, interim receivers, Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (CCAA) monitors, bankruptcy trustees and Chapter 11 creditors' committees. We handle all aspects of insolvency and restructuring proceedings. They advise on creditors' rights and debtor-in-possession financings, act for clients in plans of arrangements, negotiate the purchase and sale of distressed companies, and develop recovery strategies and recapitalization plans.

The Lexpert Special Edition: Insolvency and Restructuring is the product of an extensive peer survey process, and was published digitally on October 15, 2024.
