

Bryan Finlay, QC Honoured with 2012 Lexpert Zenith Award

October 12, 2012

WeirFoulds is pleased to announce that Bryan Finlay, QC, has been selected as a recipient of the 2012 Lexpert Zenith Awards honouring leadership through change.

The Lexpert Zenith Awards honour, annually, thought leadership in the legal profession. This year, the Awards celebrate those leaders who, for forty or more years, have been change agents for their clients, firms, companies, departments, faculties, profession, colleagues and communities.

Bryan is recognized as one of the top litigation lawyers in Canada. A Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, Bryan has been the recipient of a number of awards and acknowledgements, including the 2012 OBA Award for Excellence in Civil Litigation, as well as recognition in Chambers Global, and in multiple categories by The Best Lawyers in Canada including the prestigious category of “Bet-the-Company” litigators. He has also been recognized as one of the 100 Most Creative Lawyers in Canada and one of the Leading 100 Canada/US Cross-Border Litigators in Canada by Lexpert®, as well as one of the Leading 500 Lawyers in Canada by Lexpert® and American Lawyer Media.

Bryan practises a broad range of litigation engaging the most complex commercial, constitutional, tort and public law issues. He is a Canadian Trustee of the Harold G. Fox Education Fund; Editor in Chief, Credit and Banking Litigation, Federated Press; Member of the Faculty for the Appellate Oral and Written Advocacy Continuing Legal Education programs; and a lecturer in numerous other Continuing Legal Education programs.

We congratulate Bryan on this honour and for his continuing contribution to excellence within the legal community.
