

WeirFoulds Welcomes Raj Datt as Chair of the Subrogation & Recovery Practice Group

August 28, 2018

WeirFoulds is pleased to announce that Raj Datt has joined the firm as a partner to Chair the Subrogation & Recovery Practice Group.

Raj is recognized for his more than 15 years of experience that has allowed him to successfully recover millions of dollars for his clients.

His deep understanding of the insurance industry allows him to provide his clients with clear, practical and well-rounded advice. He frequently takes the complexity of insurance law and turns it into practical knowledge that his clients can easily understand.

He works with clients on an extensive variety of complex loss scenarios, including prosecuting large commercial and residential property losses arising from fires, floods, product liability, oil & gas operations, water/sewer main failures, and construction projects.

“We are so glad to add Raj to our team. He is an experienced lawyer in Subrogation and Recovery, which allows us to further expand our service offerings to our clients,” said Wayne Egan, Managing Partner, WeirFoulds.

Raj has litigated cases throughout Canada, and has been the lead counsel for several trials, appeals, and interlocutory motions. He has appeared on behalf of his clients before the Ontario Court of Appeal, Ontario Divisional Court, New Brunswick Court of Appeal, and the Saskatchewan Court of Appeal.

“WeirFoulds is a terrific firm that has a focus on providing clients with exceptional service,” said Raj. “I am excited about further building my practice at a great law firm like WeirFoulds.”
