

WeirFoulds congratulates Lisa Danay on being appointed as Vice-Chair of the OBA's Information Technology and Intellectual Property Law Section

July 16, 2018

WeirFoulds congratulates Lisa Danay, Associate, information technology and intellectual property, on being appointed to the role of Vice-Chair of the Executive of the OBA's Information Technology and Intellectual Property Law Section for the coming year.

As Vice Chair, Lisa will play a key role in developing innovative and exciting programming, hosting special events, honouring the work of her peers, producing informative practice-specific articles and papers and encouraging and facilitating participation from Section members.

Lisa has been an active member of the OBA's Information Technology and Intellectual Property Law Section, holding the role of Secretary since 2016.

Congratulations Lisa!