Michael Statham is a Partner at WeirFoulds and a former Managing Partner of the firm. His practice encompasses many aspects of corporate-commercial litigation, with a particular emphasis on complex contractual disputes.

Michael's forte is complex business litigation. He has specific experience in cross-border commercial disputes, as well as in litigation raising issues of professional liability, taxation law, the rights and responsibilities of directors and officers, defamation, the defence of class actions and constitutional and public law.

He has appeared as counsel before all levels of courts in Ontario, including the Superior Court, the Divisional Court and the Ontario Court of Appeal. He has also appeared before the Federal Court of Canada, and before various administrative tribunals, including the Ontario Securities Commission.

He was recognized as one of Canada's 2010 Lexpert Rising Stars: Leading Lawyers Under 40, has been listed in the 2016 edition of Benchmark Canada – the Guide to Canada's Leading Litigation Firms and Attorneys and the 2022 and 2023 editions of Best Lawyers in Canada as a leading practitioner in Corporate and Commercial Litigation.

Michael is a co-editor and contributing author of Canada Law Book's recent text Electronic Documents: Records Management, e-Discovery and Trial.
